

Parent and Family Promise

- I promise not to use the word “homesick” in conversation with my student.
- I promise to write letters, make phone calls and send e-mails, text messages and care packages often.
- I promise to visit, but not without prior arrangements.
- I promise to respect the changes I see in my student.
- I promise to be patient, and to stop worrying (or at least to take a day off now and then).
- I promise to trust my student to take responsibility for their actions.
- I promise to seek help for my student, if they truly need it.
- Finally, I promise to contact Parent and Family Services in the Dean of Students Office when I break any of the above promises, or with any questions, concerns or suggestions.
